Source of Revenue

Reimbursements for state expenditures for the Child Support Services Division from the federal government are received and expended under this budget fund code.

Restrictions on Use

There are no restrictions on the use of this fund.

Description and History

This code was created to ease the task of separating federal receipts for child support entitlement payments (that require a state match) from federal receipts that are a reimbursement of state indirect expenditures for child support enforcement activities (and that require no state match).

The federal government does not require the reimbursement to go to the Child Support Services Division (CSSD), formerly Child Support Enforcement Division (CSED). DOR spends this code directly in the Commissioner's Office and Administrative Services. The court system also typically gets a direct appropriation.

If the Indirect Cost Reimbursement receipts are not fully expended in the fiscal year in which they are received, the balance will lapse into the general fund.
